By CAROLINE VONSY

Univ Européenne, United States, 2016. Book. Condition: New. Language: French . Brand New Book. D origine chinoise, de nationalité française et fortement attachée à sa terre tahitienne, Caroline Vaimiti Meiling Vonsy porte en elle un multiculturalisme qui l a incitée à se pencher sur les questions d identité et d intégration des immigrants, notamment chinois, en Occident. Passionnée de récits sino-occidentaux, l auteure de ce mémoire y analyse les méandres de la culture chinoise au contact de la culture américaine, et décrit les malentendus culturels qui creusent un fossé sans fond entre les différentes générations d immigrants. Elle explique les causes politiques, sociales et familiales du départ du pays d origine et les circonstances de leur arrivée dans le pays d accueil (exclusion, maltraitance, mépris) qui conditionnent de manière irrémédiable l état d esprit des premiers arrivants, causes aux lourdes conséquences souvent ignorées par leurs descendants au début, mais qui, une fois révélées, bravant par-là même les non-dits et la pudeur traditionnelle chinoise, permettent à chacun des protagonistes de retrouver entente et respect mutuels et intégrer la société américaine avec une sérénité nouvellement acquise.
