Forgotten Books, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from The American Business Manual, Including Organization, Manufacturing, Vol. 3 Some one has said credit is to business what mortar is to a wall; it is the adhesive material with which commerce is cemented. For the most part we buy and sell merchandise, agricultural products, stocks and bonds, real estate, and everything that can be bought and sold, not for money paid down, but with promises to pay money at some future date. The money of the country has been likened to the blood that circulates through the body; but as it has been demonstrated that over 90 per cent of the business of the country is done through the medium of credits, I should liken credit to the body itself, and whatever conduces to its growth and development will to that extent build up and strengthen commerce.
