THE RESURGENCE OF NATIONALISM, RACISM AND WHITE RESENTMENT IN THE UNITED STATES (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. The purpose of this book is to examine why nationalism, racism and white resentment has spiked during President Obama s tenure. It identifies Donald Trump as the autocrat leading this resurgence. The book reveals the history of nationalism, racism and white resentment since Moors occupied Spain, Portugal and Sicily for more than 700 years. They also became the inbred progenitors for Europe s royalty, including that of Russia. With the Catholic Church headed by family members, African Moors ruled the less civilized Germanic and Slavic migratory inhabitants for over 1,000 years. The Protestant Reformation and Thirty Year Wars marked the turning point for Europe s black masters and the beginning of a popular revolution by albino masses. The popular one man, one vote constitutional revolution was not completed until 1848 for Western, Central and Southern Europe. From the 17th century s turning point, the Germanic and Slavic descendants of modern Europe not only overthrew the Black Moorish autocratic rule on the continent but extend their rule over Africa, the Americas and Asia. The intergenerational white resentment passed to a grandson of a German immigrant, Donald J. Trump. This resentment among most Euro-Americans has played a devastating role in that harsh treatment experienced by people of color when they were enslaved, assaulted, had their culture, civilization and humanity destroyed while their land and possessions were seized. They imposed a physical enslavement that eventually gave way to a longer neocolonial mental enslavement. In volume 1 of 2, the arc of justice is long for people of African descent with no resolution until volume 2. But, history is cyclical and eventually masters or the ruling class will be subordinates to whom they...
