FREE TO BE ME: CELEBRATING 21 YEARS OF FREEDOM YOUTH (PAPERBACK)

Tangent Books, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Freedom Youth celebrated its 20th Birthday in 2015. Rosa didn't want this important milestone to pass unnoticed, so we started talking with each other and then with Off the Record and Outstories about it. This led us to approach the Heritage Lottery Fund. They generously agreed to fund an oral history project to tell Freedom's story in the words of the people who set it up, who have been or are its members, and who have worked for Freedom over the years. We interviewed 25 people, and heard from many more past and present members who filled in surveys. They spoke or wrote about the difference that being a part of Freedom has made to their lives, and how it has supported and enabled young people to be out, and to feel comfortable with their sexuality and identity. In 2016, it is an LGBTQ+ group, widely inclusive and including those who are queer/questioning and others. We have reflected this change throughout Free to be me. We have tried to use the right abbreviation (LGB, LGBT, LGBTQ+) in the appropriate time period as we've told Freedom's story. What hasn't changed is Freedom's core service. It has run sessions in central Bristol every Tuesday...
