Fastman Publishing, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Rockin Roulette is a book for anyone who enjoys the game, from the beginners to the players who ve tried every strategy known to man. It will become known as one of the most honest and useful books ever written on the subject. The book is written as if I know you, and in a way, I do. You ll find sound advice as if coming from a friend, because I ve been through it all. I ve been playing roulette for over 15 years. I also have experience with tournament play, where I once finished ahead of over 200 other players. But, the book is about you, and how you spend your entertainment dollars. As your guide, I will show you how to avoid making costly mistakes when you play. The beauty of Rockin Roulette is how cheaply a player can buy into a game. Honestly, it s not any more expensive than a trip to a theme park or a professional sports venue. Rockin Roulette can be classified as an entertaining self-help book. There are no long, agonizing lectures about odds and percentages. You don t need that, and all of the mathematics in the world can t help you win a random number game. But I will show you how to attack random numbers again, and again, and again, until you are victorious. You ll be shown the ideal conditions for winning. If you can use all of the advice, and position yourself for success, that s great. If you visit a casino where the conditions are less than ideal, you ll have enough knowledge to know what to do. You may have read many books on roulette, as...
