Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Carter is weird. I mean . totally weird. If you don t believe me, just ask the kids at Lake Mohegan Junior High. Probably his ears that appeared to be growing at a rate several times faster than the rest of him, along with as many freckles on his face as stars in the sky, didn t help him any. Really big ears and tons of freckles however are simply not enough to officially qualify for the definition of weird. -How about having a black bird named Nevermore making its home in the wild shock of hair that grew red from Carter s head?-Now that would do it. The fact that this little black bird could not speak never stopped Carter from talking endlessly to his only friend. He was convinced the bird communicated with him through thoughts wired directly into his mind. It was not unusual to see Carter deep in what appeared to be a one-way conversation with Nevermore. Like I said, Carter is weird. Because of his alienation, Carter Nicholsworth found himself a stranger gazing into a mirror that only reflected rejection. It was the legendary and mysterious forest of Wickedwood located behind his home that had always provided him sanctuary from the inconsistencies of an uncertain world . but not this day. On a morning born as none before after waking from a terrifying dream, Carter and Nevermore unintentionally slip under an invisible fence that separates reality from fantasy. It is there, on the other side of here, where Carter begins a courageous adventure of self-discovery. Joining Serene and the Wiggwoggs, Carter embarks on a dangerous mission to recover and return a stolen sacred trust to its rightful...
