The Lost Son: A Child of God (Paperback)

By E M Jennings

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The reader chose this book, I suspect, because central to the story is the controversial Christian cult, The Children of God or what eventually became known as the Family. This is not an expose of a rogue, narcissistic preacher or the accusation of crimes against the top leadership during the late 1970s but rather, the perspective of a teen who was first introduced to this group in 1972, when I was thirteen years of age. I was actively recruited at age sixteen; I left home when I was seventeen; and I was on the streets of Europe three weeks later. I believed fervently, as I think many did, that we were the reawakening of the first-century church and that our leader, the man we called Moses David, or Mo was God s anointed end-time prophet. Even more, I was convinced that our disciplined lives and the activities of scripture memorizing, street witnessing, and reaching out to the world were essential. First, because they were and remain the pillars of Christian teaching that brought and still brings the good news...
