Some Success Ideas. For You. This little book is a fable about a Maharishi ( a sage) who travels worlds across universes on one mission: to share his ideas on success and how to get it. He rarely interacts with someone in person, and instead passes these ideas through some spiritually powerful ways to the mind of the person he is assigned to help. But, sometimes, very rarely, he discusses about these success ideas in person. This is the time he does meet one and you are that person in the book he talks to. Have you ever felt like you are not worth your dreams or have what it takes? Do you think big and act small? Do you fight a good fight with life? Do you need to win always? How do you know if you have lived your day well? Three simple words that can immensely change your life around? (Note 9) Stay humble and courageous and be the ruler of your life Don t be trapped by your past and future The power of living in the present Show up where you need to, no matter what! Be like a tennis ball - a rare quality of success (Note 5) The power of attachment and detachment Stay there till you get to your dreams Only a few get further and higher in life, join them You don t have to win all the time Let s take a look at some insights from the book: A seed is not afraid because it seems to know that it doesn t have to...
