Selecting Your College Your Degree Planning your higher education is the most important thing you will do for your future. When it comes to your education if you don't know where you are going, sadly, you are already there. If you thought that planning your or your child's education was something to do in the last six months of their senior year in high school, think again. Every fall thousands of students set in motion a game plan that began years before. There are only so many schools available and the time to begin planning is the early years of high school. That's right, you need to begin the game plan for your child's higher education during their freshman or sophomore year of high school. If you don't, you will end up having to settle for a solution rather than the course you have really chosen. Fortunately, there is a tool to help you accomplish just that. Selecting Your College Your Degree answers the burning questions for parents and young adults. In fact, you'll find answers for questions you didn't know to ask! Inside Selecting Your College Your Degree you learn: Start Early - meet with your child's guidance counselor to help chart their course. All About the SAT - demystify the dreaded test. Choosing the Right School for You - explore the options and select the right match. Competition is high - what the school will look for in your child. Learn the Language of Applications and Qualifications - deciphering the language of college applications. Completing the Application - finally, how to complete the college application. Checking Out the Academics - learning the academics of...
