Asahina Wallace, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It s 1947 in Los Angeles. Mickey Cohen s men are taking over Bugsy Siegel s rackets. A Red-baiting Congressman is in town looking for Commies in the movie biz. And studio cop John McClellan, head of security for Continental Pictures, has his hands full-with a murdered mogul, the faked suicide of a former flame, a gossip columnist with a nose for studio dirt, and the promise of something like love with a beautiful young screenwriter. Nobody does Hollywood hard-boiled like Charles Fleming. Beautifully written with all the period details dead-on, dialogue so breezy it ll make your hair stand on end, and a twisty, dangerous plot that keeps you guessing, THE STUDIO KILL is the Real McCoy. Buy it and do like I did-stay up all night and take one long wild ride. - Robert Ward, author of Red Baker and Four Kinds of Rain Charles Fleming is a veteran journalist who has worked for the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner, Variety, Newsweek, and the Los Angeles Times. He is the author of High Concept: Don Simpson and the Hollywood Culture of Excess and the novels The Ivory Coast and After Havana. He is also co-author of the New York Times bestsellers Three Weeks in October and My Lobotomy.
