Excerpt from The Spanish Armada: A Descriptive Historical Poem, in Commemoration of the Opening of the New Guildhall, Plymouth, by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, K. G., C., C.; August 13th, 1874 IN presenting to the public this unpretending little book, the writer would fain hope that, although possessing very little (if any) literary merit or poetical power, it may yet meet with some measure of approval; being the offspring of a mind delighting in everything which redounds to the honour and prosperity of his native town, and the result of the employment of a few spare hours at irregular intervals.
