Through the use of lighthearted anecdotes strengthened by relevant Scripture, Gaddis helps us brace ourselves for lifes eminent storms. . . I urge you to experience the positive, life-changing power of God manifested in this great work. Mike Huckabee, Governor of Arkansas We live in a pressure cooker of difficulty, fear, insecurity, instability and even danger. Who among us hasnt dangled at the end of our rope at one time or another, hanging on by our fingernails While we arent guaranteed exemption from the social, political, family, financial, medical and natural crises that abound, the Lord always provides an exit strategy to those willing to seek and receive relief. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can stand up under it (1 Corinthians 10: 13, NIV). In Escape from Wits End, Todd Gaddis examines ten passages, one from each of the Bibles main sections, in which God provides for His children in periods of peril. Difficult times teach valuable lessons; yet we arent meant to remain snared...
