These poems are gutsy, gentle, ugly and quaint. The poet s voice is a mixture of feeling, detachment, love, anger, close observation, humour and the prophetic. The themes are, the failed experiment of human independence from God and its consequences, a woman lost at sea, the nightmarish journey of life s broken road, the ugliness of men, the beauty of a woman, extending a hand to orphaned words, nature singing to its Maker and not least Hope. John Charles McKay writes in English, Scots and occasionally no language at all. When something elemental is lost the elements themselves become the medium for recording this, (Shine on Paper Moon). He reserves his native Scots tongue for his most lacerating poems. He says, Scots is rich in terms of abuse. It s wonderful to have a good rant at someone s expense and they remain quite ignorant of the fact. Wicked? Let it be. (Me Richt Lurden?), (Babylon). Although the author dislikes the term Formalist sonnet, villanelle, ballad, haiku and muwashshah are the primary vehicles for his...

Reviews

Basically no phrases to clarify. It really is written in straightforward phrases rather than hard to understand. You will not sense monotony at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you ask me).
