Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In roughly 110 words, this funny, rhyming story narrates the adventurous activities of the trouble-making family cat through the eyes of a child. As with most pets, he sheds, sneaks outside, scratches furniture, and simply makes a mess! A twist at the end reminds you that they sure do love him, even if he is a bad kitty. This charming book is sure to bring smiles, laughter and joy to children and those reading with them. A wonderful keepsake! With its simple language and a recurring pattern, this book targets the preschool/early reader audience, but will be cherished by any age child. Short on plot and long on rhyming words, this fun-filled, happy picture book would fit in well with any preschool or playgroup storytime with its singsong verse. The playful text describes the fun, but frolicsome family pet - a cat that is always paws-deep in mischief! The captivating illustrations done in markers and watercolor engage the reader with lots of child appeal. The story comes alive with uncomplicated pictures that present a humorous look at the life of a feline! Simple sentences and delightful illustrations make this a purr-fect introduction to the pleasure of reading. This paperback book is flexible yet durable. Right-sized to bring along everywhere and anywhere! It can easily fit in a seat back pocket, diaper bag, back pack or right next to your child s car seat. Great for gift giving, too!.
