WealthMadness. Paperback. Condition: New. 510 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.1in. In a powerful message of true hope for each of us, Relentless Pursuit explains how pursuit of your central purpose, your reason for being, is your unfailing source of happiness. In an inspiring condensation into one place of the ideas from many great philosophical, political and economic minds from decades past, the book describes in common-sense language our crucial need to be productive, and identifies how a proper worldview and core values demand true Capitalism as the only social system capable of achieving individual happiness the world over the ethics of Capitalism as the solution to the current moral climate that is having disastrous impact on our ability to enjoy our lives to the fullest. Beginning with an expose on the nature of wealth, where wealth comes from, and how one actually gets wealthy, the author delves deep into how absolutely vital wealth is to your life and well-being, the tremendous wealth and abundance that is possible for you, and most importantly, why you should care. The book discusses the impediments to our happiness and to the creation of wealth presented by intrusive government and elitists who seek to control us for personal power and gain, but then ends the discussion of what's terribly wrong with our society with an illuminating presentation of twelve Secrets of Wealth that makes absolutely clear the choice of which road we need to take as individuals to secure our future of living in the greatest personal liberty, happiness and fulfillment that is possible to us. The Secrets conclude with how wealth creation and our well-being vitally depends upon individual liberty and an unwavering respect for individual rights, and how a society that is founded on these IS Capitalism a social system not seen in this...
