CLAUDIA S BUSINESS AL men s ways are, in theory, admirable; but some men s ways, in practice, are peculiar. All men are bound to be considered (by themselves at least) reasonable and logical--yet truth compels the statement that some men do not know their own minds. All men must be admitted as masters-- virile and self-controlled--nevertheless, the fact remains that some men are more faddish than the most nervous spinster. All men indignantly repudiate the accusation of selfishness; yet the chief drawback to some men is that they cannot escape from their own private demon of profound, unalterable egoism. Many hopelessly selfish men take peculiar delight in the play A Message from Mars. They cannot see themselves anywhere in the piece and that s where the fun comes in! There was once a certain Man who was by way of being rather...
