On the 29th of January, 1794, he addressed the following letter to the legislature: Virginia Debates, pref. p. iii, v. Gentlemen Op The Legislature, After having served the public for a number of years, to the best of my abilities, in the various offices to which I have had the honour to be appointed, I think it proper, before your adjournment, to signify to you, and through you to my fellow-citizens at large, that I now find myself so far advanced in age, that it will be expedient for me at the close of the session, to retire from the cares and fatigues of public business, to the repose...
