Young and naive Freddie Kennedy, an English born country boy stumbles inadvertently into a European crime gang after banishment from his family due to his deceiving of them. He failed at a US flight training school and lied about the fact. Freddie, now in a foreign land and a loner, is introduced as a pawn into one arm of one of the most powerful organisations on planet earth. The leader of this organisation holds a personal quest to retrieve hidden Anti-Matter Data that can be used as a viable energy source for the Earth's future. A decade later the Data is now held by an old school acquaintance from Freddie's past. Freddie learns there are astonishingly sinister aspects at play and that the situation leading him to lie to his family were very much orchestrated and mainly due to his ancestry. He vows revenge and is easily persuaded by the Sausenhofer Organisation to undertake the retrieval of The Anti-Matter Data. Retrained in the dark area of global covert operations and remaining anonymous to the world as the Powers that be...
