Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is an operational manual on how to setup a recruitment agency. Covers sample templates needed to start a recruitment agency. We are a company in the UK providing this business opportunity for people with no previous sales or recruitment experience to experienced consultants enabling them to set up and run their very own recruitment agency. We will provide you with all the knowledge and systems you need to run a profitable recruitment business. You will personally be trained by Managing Director Christine Blackledge, who has over 20 years extensive experience of the recruitment industry and has worked at Director and Senior Management level. Christine has contracted with companies such Nottingham County Council, West Sussex County Council, Manpower, NHS, Brighton College of Technology and Chichester College, and various recruitment and care companies across the North and South of England. Christine has trained staff at NHS Hospitals, Residential Homes and Nursing Homes across the South of England as a lecturer and distance learning tutor. Christine has also set up a training school which had registration with City Guilds of London enabling her to teach National Vocational Qualifications. Christine helped to set up recruitment and staffing agencies and medical school in the UK and the USA with license s to ensure the standards are being met. Christine is also a licensed business development Consultant for Business s across the UK and the USA and is currently running events on how to start a recruitment company. Christine will provide you with one-to-one training showing the exact steps you need to take to make your startup business a success.
