Ruy Lopez: Attack with the Schliemann

By Sam Collins

Chess Base Mai 2015, 2015. CD-ROM. Condition: Neu. Neuware - The Schliemann (or Jaenisch) Gambit, 1.e4 e5 2.Nf3 Nc6 3.Bb5 f5, languished in semi-obscurity before top GM Teimour Radjabov revolutionised the opening with new ideas, defending his analysis with excellent results in Linares and elsewhere against the world's best players. Black plays actively and aggressively from move 3, frequently sacrificing a pawn for open lines, kingside activity and the bishop pair. In this DVD Sam Collins provides a complete and detailed repertoire for Black. Numerous novelties and improvements are suggested, with the conclusion that White has no clear route to an opening advantage. Refresh your repertoire and avoid the Spanish Torture with 3.f5! . Video running time: 3 h 48 min (English) . With interactive training including video feedback . Exclusive training database with 50 essential games . Including ChessBase Reader Sam Collins is an International Master from Ireland. He has two GM norms and has been national champion of Ireland and Japan. He has represented Ireland in eight Olympiads, winning a gold medal in Bled 2002. He has also produced several bestselling DVDs for Chessbase Englisch.
