Haven Edwards is a sensual, intelligent, 21st century diva with an exotic career. Wanting nothing more than to move past her ugly divorce, she attends an adults only Carnal-val where a strangely glowing pocket watch calls to her, compelling her to steal it. Overcome with its power, she winds it. A portal opens beneath her feet, and hurtles her back through time to 1817 where she crashes into the life of the very proper, very sexy, Logan Dunham. A duke with a deep distrust of beautiful women, Logan can't understand his staggering desire for the woman with the quick wit, and jade green eyes-the woman who haunted his dreams long before they met. .meets a 19th century duke. Haven is determined to find a way home, but she can't shake her hunger for the dark, brooding duke. Logan's a duke, he's out of her league, right? So why does her heart beat a little faster whenever he is near? Why does her mind conjure images of happily ever after? .the sparks fly, tempers and passions flare, and two souls touch across time. One touch, and they are consumed by their desire. But before they can untangle their feelings for one another, a sociopath with a god complex and a knife fetish sets his evil intents on Haven. In order to save her life, Logan must destroy the demons of his past, and learn to trust a power he doesn't understand. Can he get to her in time? Will the time-swept diva be lost forever, or will the diva get her duke? The Diva and the Duke is a...
