DESERT JADE: A LETTY VALDEZ MYSTERY (PAPERBACK)

Rope s End Publishing, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Tucson private investigator and Iraq War veteran Letty Valdez joins forces with an unlikely ally, Chinese police Detective Inspector Zhou Liang Wei, in Desert Jade, a fast-paced mystery-suspense thriller set in the Sonoran Desert. Letty represents the three cultures of the Borderlands: Mexican American, Native American (Tohono O odham), and Anglo American. As an Iraq War veteran, Letty struggles every day with the trauma of the war and loss. Yet she persists valiantly in her work as a private investigator and in her role as the youthful de facto matriarch of her family. Her devotion to her parentless younger siblings cannot be overestimated. Zhou (his name sounds like Joe) has been sent to Arizona on the advice of Interpol to track the activities of Hong Kong triad gangsters. He has an additional task - to find Victoria Wong, the abducted daughter of a Hong Kong official. Zhou knows the lethal character of the gangsters and how they will go to any length to achieve their goals, including chopping off limbs of anyone who gets in their way. Zhou has to find the abducted girl quickly before she is murdered or sold into sex slavery. What Zhou does not anticipate is the intense attraction he feels for Letty s friend Jade whom he meets shortly after arriving in Tucson. The attraction is mutual. Unfortunately, Jade is unaccountably in the triad gangsters crosshairs, and she finds herself directly threatened by their violence. Letty has another problem. She s been hired to clear the name of her new client s nephew who has been accused of murdering a local woman. Letty quickly learns of a connection between the murder and the Chinese gangsters...
