Loving Healing Press, United States, 2011. Hardback. Book Condition: New. Richa Kinra (illustrator). 287 x 213 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Who are the people with disabilities in your neighborhood? Maggie and Momma love going for walks. During every outing, Maggie learns about something new. Today's no different! Momma has arranged for Maggie to meet lots of people in her neighborhood. They all have different jobs. They all come from different cultures. They all use different things to help their bodies. Maggie doesn't just stop to chit-chat. Rather, she gets to the bottom of things. By asking the right question, she discovers how many people with disabilities use aids to help them out. Let's find out how they work, too! Children will learn that disabilities occur in every culture. Parents and teachers can accurately explain how various disability aids work. Children will realize that working with a disability is a possibility for some. Therapists can use this book as a motivational tool for patients with disabilities. Kids can satisfy their curiosity about disability aids in an unimposing manner. Therapists Acclaim: This book is just right for a preschooler or young elementary...
