Excerpt from In the First Person a Novel It was so hot that, as father said, jest to stand still and think made a feller sweat. The leaves on the maples in our yard did not move, but the poplars Showed the white under - Side of their foliage even without any wind; and that was a Sign of rain. I had read a little poem about the poplar s leaves, and I felt like quoting it, but I held my tongue. The tree-toads were making their bubbling noise; there was one on the Side of our chopping-block under the brakes. He was near enough for me to see his little gray Shape as I stood behind mother on the porch. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
