Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Your Empathy Training handbook is well written. Covers the importance of empathy and makes it attainable. Well done! - Rabbi Moshe K., Yeshiva School, Nevada. LEARN EMPATHY is wonderful, every aspect being touched starting from the feel of it, the understanding of it, the application of it; simple yet so extensive. Every time I go through it I see different angles of situational application. - Luther K., Airline Staff Trainer. I am amazed at the detail, it seems to have all the answers I require. - F.H., psychotherapist. Designed for the school setting and initially used to train professional counselors, the practical exercises for acquiring empathy skills contained in this book can be used for the benefit of students, couples, families, people in counseling and in the workplace. Why teach and learn empathy? The ability to have empathy for others is important as a foundation for caring and compassion and contributes to positive relationships in all areas of life, from the classroom to the living room and the boardroom. Empathy builds a sense of community and reduces the tendency...
