Here is little Introduction Kelly Traves Kelly Traves. grew up as a Christian in Bristol. A lovely city, in the South West of England, where she lived with both parents and my younger brother, Kevin. Kevin passed away from epilepsy at the age of 9 of epilepsy (Kelly was 12). It was the most traumatising thing she has been through Into her early 20 s, she remembers reading an incredible book called the Power of Faith, Smith Wigglesworth. It stirred a hunger in her and she became quickly intrigued by the power of the holy spirit. Not too long after she met her ex-fiance and this dimmed her focus. they were together for 2yrs before the relationship ended in a not so healthy way. She then fell into an even MORE unhealthy relationship where she was mentally, emotionally eventually physically abused and the only sight of God she had left, was the odd visits to church on Sunday....
