RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 100 pages. Original publisher: Washington, D. C. : U. S. Dept. of Labor, Employment Standards Administration, Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs, 2009 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)495351213 Subject: Construction contracts -- United States -- Handbooks, manuals, etc. Excerpt: . . . AND AFFIRMATIVE ACTION SPECIFICATION EEO A A S 2 Contractors and subcontractors must establish and maintain current lists of minority and female recruitment sources; provide written notification to minority and female recruitment sources and to community organizations when the contractor or its unions have employment opportunities available; and maintain a record of the organizations responses. (41 CFR 60-4. 3 (a) 7. b.) Examples of Actions That Demonstrate Compliance: Recruitment sources should include the state employment offices serving the recruitment areas for the companys construction projects, and may also include organizations such as the Job Corps, Urban League, YWCA, National Association of Women in Construction, Neighborhood Youth Corps, National Organization of Women, LULAC, and Aspira, among others. In addition, local community organizations are extremely effective as employer employee linkage resources. Contractors may maintain files of letters to minority and female recruitment sources announcing the employment opportunities and application procedures. In order to maintain a record of recruitment organizations responses, contractors may retain any written responses received from the sources, or log or otherwise record the responses. An applicant flow log may be used by contractors to identify employment solicitations and referrals, and to track the results of the applications. Applicant flow documentation should include copies of correspondence from recruitment sources, copies of job announcements from state employment offices, and copies of notes, diaries, phone logs and or other written records of contacts with recruitment organizations.
