Excerpt from A Full Report of the Proceedings in the Case of the Office of the Judge Promoted by Hodgson V. Rev. F. Oakley: Before the Rt. Hon. Sir Herbert Jenner Fust, Kt., Dean of the Arches, C. C. C That the Articles of our faith were drawn up, in direct opposition to the Roman Catholic doctrines, appears not only from the terms in which they have been drawn up, but also from writers of the highest authority. Bishop Burnet, a learned Prelate of our Church, who wrote upon the Thirty nine Articles, and whose work is universally known, in his Introduction speaks thus Another reason that the first Reformers had for their descending in to so many particulars, and for all these negatives that are in their confessions, was this: they had smarted long under the tyranny of Popery, and so they had reason to secure themselves from it, and from all those who were leavened with it. They here in England had seen how many had complied with every alteration both in King Henry and King Edward s reign, who not only...

Reviews

I just began reading this pdf. It is actually written in straightforward words instead of hard to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
