

50 Ways We Can Improve Our Country: A Blueprint for Effective Governmental Change (Paperback)

By Morgan Paris

Outskirts Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . There is nothing wrong with change, if it is in the right direction. So once stated Sir Winston Churchill. Unfortunately during these last eight years the change we sought has been decidedly in the wrong direction, as we have witnessed during the Obama Administration a near doubling of our national debt, an anemic economic recovery that has produced consistently slow economic growth, a record number of people living in poverty or receiving food stamps, along with a continuous shrinkage of the middle class. In addition, there has been a maligned health care bill that will end up leaving millions of people still without adequate health insurance, or else health insurance that is too costly to maintain, and an expensive infrastructure bill that did not even come close to fixing our nation's infrastructure needs. But worst of all however, has been an inept foreign policy that has led to the rise to one of the most ruthless terrorist organizations to emerge from the Middle East, and which sees no signs of abating. It is no wonder then that around three fourths...
