An extremely common pedantic term occurs in the Latin word Queere, Englished Query; which is employed in a most awkward manner to ask a question, when it is altogether useless and impertinent. For example-- He thinks. so;--but query--is he right? -- It is so reported;--but query--is it correct? -- Query--Do you believe that? This might with great propriety have been classed with the awkward vulgarities, were it not so evidently pedantic. Such are a very few of the pedantic...
