Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Open Court, Vol. 46 With the death of Thomas J. McCormack on June 24th of this year, his part as a pioneer in secondary education has been brought to a close; but what he was accomplished in the La Salle-Peru Township High School and his influence in education circles in general, as well as his many excellent articles and translations, insure him immortality, for something of the soul of a man is attached upon the work which he has produced, and the good in it lives on for the future to use and to build upon as he has used the work of his predecessors to form his life and to create of molding ideas. Teaching is perhaps the most influential method of molding future lives, and Mr. McCormack, with the rare combination of his fine scholarship and administrative ability, was an inspiration to all of those who came into contact with him to accomplish great things in the spirit of Science and Truth. Mr. McCormack came to the Open Court in 1888 soon...
