Resource Publications (CA), 2016. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. In 2005 my wife, Jan, and I moved into a condo along the shores of Lake Washington. Even though I had served as President of Seattle Pacific University back in the 1970s, I was unknown on the streets of the resort-like village of Kirkland, Washington. Each morning Molly, our Maltese puppy, and I went across the street for her potty break and exercise. Soon, with Molly as the introducer, I discovered a new world where strangers became friends through the connection of our dogs. Later, after two back surgeries, Jan joined us on our daily walk down the street, through the village, and around the park by using a doggie stroller as a substitute for a walker. The sight of the three of us walking down the street, with Molly peering forward from her seat at the helm of the stroller, became a phenomenon of its own on the streets of Kirkland. Together, we walked through an open door of learning and found that friendship based upon listening, caring, and giving is a grace that God reserves for plain people who walk daily and serve joyfully in common places. Confessions of a Streetwalker . . . is a truly inspirational story of how a dog opened up the lives of Dave and Jan as they moved to a new community. . . . The simple truths that Dave brings out can not only save your community, but the world if we apply them to our own lives. May it be a blessing to all. --Carol James, Dawgmother of University of Washington football Dave McKenna demonstrates how the simple act of walking the family dog can unleash the power of friendship. While walking...
