Alphascript Publishing. Taschenbuch. Condition: Neu. Neuware - David John Pleat born Nottingham, England 15 January 1945 is a former football English player turned manager and sports commentator. He is remembered by his contemporaries primarily for his career as managers of Tottenham Hotspur and Luton Town F.C. football clubs, and for an oft-televised clip of him running onto the pitch in 1983 to celebrate after a last-minute goal by Raddy Antic against Manchester City prevented Pleat's team Luton Town from being relegated from the Football League First Division. Pleat's first club as a senior player was Nottingham Forest , which was his local club. From there he moved on to Luton Town , Shrewsbury Town and Exeter City , where he once played outside left against the team that he was later to manage, Tottenham Hotspur. His playing career ended with a stint at Peterborough United , after which he turned to coaching and management. 112 pp. Englisch.
