For many of us, our pets are a part of the family - we love them and protect them and want the best for them, in much the same way as we would for our own children. We want them to be with us for as long as possible and so we look out for them, trying to do the best for them. I know that this is the reason that I started to research natural alternatives when it came to pet care. For me it was scary how many times pet care products, especially those for getting rid of ticks and fleas were recalled. I decided that it simply was not worth the risk to use commercial products, especially those that contained high levels of toxic substances. At least with more natural solutions I can be sure that my pets are happy and safe. When I started to look into alternative solutions, I was amazed to find out how essential oils had similar benefits for animals as they do for humans. They are simple to use, natural and a lot gentler on pets and the environment alike. Because they are so concentrated, a little goes a long way making them a much more economical solution as well. What is also amazing is how effective the oils are - just a couple of applications put an end to flea infestations. My little schnauzer's skin condition cleared up after a few weeks of using lavender and tea tree oil in her bath -...
