THE GAMBIT

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 56 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. The gambit is an anthology of twenty five short stories. This third anthology of mine incorporates three groups of short stories based on my imagination, experience and knowledge. As an army officer and a civil servant I've served home and abroad at the very beginning of my career. I've met with different people of various nationalities, and learned to appreciate customs, traditions and culture, which broadened my horizons and enhanced my capabilities; and enabled me to express vividly my views on three main themes: on daily life, art and my dreams. Below are displayed short paragraphs of one of the anthologys short stories, which serves as a glimpse of what kind of stories expects the reader in this anthology: So how can they fool us you'll ask We do know all about their ties with North Korea, that's what we believe, right But there's one fact we didn't take into account, where their bombs are going to be built. He made another short break on purpose now, to enhance the dramatic atmosphere. But he didn't have to explain it anymore, the surprising riddle was solved by all the session participants, they didn't interrupt him though and he summed it up in one more sentence. So they'll supply the North Koreans with enriched uranium and the North Koreans will build their bombs. Your paintings are, how should I define it Impressive, yes that's the right term, absolutely impressive. She said opening her car's door, far from the danger of any commitment. I'd like to have a second look at them, before reaching any decision. She added with a polite smile and understanding. I'll keep in touch. She went on talking behind...
