Making that effort a success takes your deployability. Availability speaks to your willingness; deployability, to your readiness. The key to your readiness involves becoming rooted in foundational discipleship principles and grounded in your faith to exponentially increase your probability of success. Whether you re a soldier in the military or a soldier in God s army, soldier readiness processing (SRP) is a must. It helps to ensure that whenever and wherever you are deployed you are at your best for the task at hand. This study examines ten specific areas of deployment readiness that will supplement your spiritual growth on your discipleship journey and empower and equip you to deploy your best self in service.
