Catalogue, 1931-32 Their aim was to supply within the limits of Philadelphia the need of a College for higher Catholic education. The nucleus Of La Salle College had already been formed in September, 1862, as the Christian Brothers Academy attached to St. Michael s Parochial School, at 1419 North Second Street. When the number of students became too large for the accommoda tions afforded by the building on Second Street, the property at the northeast corner of Filbert and Juniper Streets was purchased in 1867, and classes continued there until June, 1886.
