Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An encouraging symptom of the advance made in the method of Assyriological publications is to be found in the work done during the past two years by such men as Knudtzon, Tallqvist, King, and Zimmern in gathering together the cuneiform tablets belonging to a single series or class and in presenting the group in such a form as to enable scholars to undertake a systematic study of the remains of Babylonian literature. Now that Bezold s great catalogue of the Kuyunjik collection of the British Museum is complete, there is no longer any excuse for what might be termed promiscuous publications. Such publications are always of doubtful value and particularly so in the domain of Assyriology. Mr. King s book is a model of what a systematic publication ought to be. He has chosen as the basis of his work a group of tablets well defined by the formula, The Lifting up of the Hand, found in the colophon. To these he has added, as an appendix, a number of tablets that illustrate the group in question. He begins by an introduction in which he carefully and succinctly sets forth the character of the group, its distinguishing features, the divisions, the method of composition, the traces of editing that they show, and their contents. In five sections, the tablets of the group selected, are furnished to the reader in accurate transliterations and admirable translations, together with explanations and comments, elaborate where needed, brief where possible. The sixth section contains Prayers against the evils attending an eclipse of the moon published in the same complete fashion. A complete vocabulary is added and appendixes containing a list of proper names, a list of numerals,...
