Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Life Journey of Sonny Rudd as an Interstate Trucker, a Preacher on Wheels, award winning author and much more This autobiography accounts for the life and life changing events of the author from his childhood through his thirty-plus years of ministry. In this book the author recalls meaningful stories of his childhood and years through adulthood, ranging from the comical to the significant, among these are stories of how God brought him safely through an armed border crossing without any documents and a dream from God that prompted a timely decision just minutes before the first of the Twin Towers was hit. The author is a personal friend and there is an authenticity that rings about his personal struggles and the way he shares from his heart.
