

Doors on the Wall (Paperback)

By Mrs Christa Davidson

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Henry George Paterson lives quietly in Cambridge with his Great Uncle Norman but without his Mum, who has been missing for two years. Uncle Norman thinks Henry would be happier living with younger members of the family but Henry wants to stay with him. His settled life begins to change when he meets an unusual busker at the Christmas market, who seems to know him. The man is playing his mother s favourite folk tune, and is dressed like someone from another century. When Christmas Day arrives, Henry s life is turned upside down as he finds himself suddenly pulled out of his time and into another with no obvious way of returning. From here he must work out a way to get home again. He makes some surprising discoveries whilst there that will change the way he sees everything. And he finds help from new friends, particularly a man called Tom and a very mysterious cat Bidy, who seems to belong to no one but herself. The author has been influenced by many writers and books with themes of time...
