From the author of black girl love comes SistaGirl a collection of stories and poems about me and you and the women you love. Over thirty stories and poems told from the heart of every woman who loves other women be it her lover, her sista or her friend and sometimes. sometimes if we are lucky they are one and the same In the slow winding title story, SistaGirl, a woman declares her love for her sista girl, a love chosen, worked on and grown in the true spirit of woman on woman friendship. In Roses, two women live with and in the middle of domestic abuse, giving and taking. We see the reality from both sides and the ugly truth that resides in the middle. And in New Pussy the grass isn't always greener fable is explored as one woman decides that green or not she has to try it out. This is just a sample of the written pathway that we explore about friendship, sex, love, fear, loss and everything in between as Anondra cuts to the core of...
