

Angel Messages: Stories of Inspiration and Healing for Children (Paperback)

By Joan Visser

Inspiring Voices, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Angel Messages presents an inspiring collection of six uplifting stories for children in which angels, in human or spiritual form, help children cope with the problems of their world. The angels transform problems by offering faith, hope, love, and the sense that miracles can be a part of children's daily lives. Johnny copes with the loneliness of a life with a nanny and a mother who must travel for business, while Janet transforms her wonderful birthday present and celebration into an opportunity to give to others less fortunate. The stories in this collection cover current topics, such as homelessness, child abuse, and assisting the elderly. An angel or angelic presence is the centerpiece of each story, making his or her presence known in a unique way. Full of universal stories speaking to those who have experienced challenges in their lives, this collection will enrich imaginations and help children develop a better understanding of life and spirituality from an early age. Angel Messages seeks to warm the hearts of all who read it while providing them with much to ponder in everyday...
