Sure, they are good looking, intelligent, and polite - but they just aren't into her. Emma wants a man who will fall over her, chase her, make her feel like she is the only woman on the planet. Swearing off relationships for the time being, Emma agrees to a trip to the lake with friends. A fun weekend, a few drinks, and lots of scantily-clad single people to help distract her mind from relationship problems. Her dilemma? Emma is deathly afraid of falling overboard and drowning. Wearing a life vest at all times helps to temper her fear but garners unwelcome attention from the public. Can Emma overcome her drowning fears and set a proper course for love? Find out in this One Night Stand Novella - A story that takes place over one-night, can be read in one-night, and may involve a one-night stand with a happily ever after.
