One day the Penniless Writer Finds he has been fired from every job in the whole village. He lies down on the edge of a cliff, and as he dreams his last three pennies fall into the sea. Tantra Bensco says in Speak Without Interruption Magazine: This mermaid story takes us into the subconscious, down into the waters and lunar-strange danger in a way told simply enough for a child to follow yet with the meaning of a wise dream.few [stories] contribute like a dream to the process of transformation of the soul. Few books take the spirit, the love of trees, the songs of stones, into consideration at all, the beauty of it, the intensity of it, the purity aflame such as The Mermaid and the Penniless Writer.
