By Dave Lapham

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This story brings to light some of the terrible conditions that some children had to endure due to broken homes and though the conditions of our country during the great depression in the early 30's. It is a story of a young lad that overcame many adversities in life. Severe sickness as a child, placed in an orphanage at age three, living in many different homes including a reform school that was worse than many prisons at the time, Bob overcame these hardships and became a hero to his country. He later married and had five children, four sons and one daughter. He also served 4 years in the U. S. Navy and later retired from a career as a letter carrier for the Postal Service. He has also written poetry, written several songs, acted in Civic Theater, has appeared in TV commercials and brochures. He is also the author of a children's Christmas story titled 'LEROY THE SMALLEST ELF OF ALL.' In addition Bob has boxed for the Army and Navy and has also boxed professionally. He has jumped from airplanes...
