These are the questions that Samuel, a middle-aged, struggling farmer in the Great Depression must wrestle with. When an old friend comes back into his life, events unfold that threaten to destroy the very essence of what makes him human. As he loses the one thing that is most dear to him, an incredible journey of discovery and faith is set into motion. As timeless truths are rediscovered and long buried secrets are unearthed, two men take sides in a battle for Truth. Battling against outside forces and the inner darkness of the human heart, their journey becomes one of faith, hope, and love. Past betrayals are brought to light throughout the journey, while future dreams threaten to be shattered. However, in the aftermath of a life changing event, the flames of darkness and lies threaten to undo all that has been done. Will courage, hope and faith prevail in a time of great uncertainty? Or will the light of truth be snuffed out by darker, more sinister means? This book is for anyone who has ever lost someone, anyone trying to find purpose and meaning in this world, and anyone who has ever asked why God allows things to happen the way they do. But more than that, it is for anyone who has ever dared to dream, anyone who believes in miracles, and anyone who believes in the power of true love.
